

dear Sirs

too many times the past have large corporations circumvented the will of the people in this matter.

I do not wish to be contacted by companies I am not associated with.

The use of unsolicited calls for commercial reasons undermines the quality of life , and is frightening to me.

Do not allow corporations to erode Indiana's previous decision on this matter.